The Young Ladies of Spartanburg Female College, under the direction of Prof. Falk and Lady, will give a Vocal and Instrumental Concert, in the College Chapel, on Monday evening, the 24th inst. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

WM. K. BLAKE, President.

New Advertisements.

The attention of our readers is directed to advertisement of the St. John's High School, which opens on the 16th January; and to the Reindale High School which commences the first Monday in February next, under charge of Messrs. Duncan and Capers.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. P. S. Smith, who has located next door to Messrs. Lee and Briggs, and is opening a large stock.

We feel it a duty, too, to call the attention of our people to the advertisement of the Messrs. Twitty, and their splendid stock of Dry and Fancy Goods, received this Fall. Buyers may call there and receive the polite attention of our friends T. J. Maran, Elford and Wm. J. Wing, who are well known throughout the District. They have a complete Stock, Call and see.

Small Pox.

This fearful disease seems to be prevailing in Columbia. In consequence of its prevalence the State Convention has adjourned to the city of Charleston. The only remedy for it is inoculation. A renewed vaccination can modify its virulent nature, if it does not prevent its assault, we would notify our citizens that by application to Dr. William E. Dean, they can be inoculated with fresh vaccine matter. Call at his Office over Goodliffe's Drug Store.

Public Meetings in N. C.

We notice two large popular meetings held in Henderson and Asheville, N. C. The general sentiments expressed at both meetings are in unison with the feeling in this State in regard to secession. A county meeting is to be held in Buncombe to carry out the feelings and sentiments of primary meetings heretofore held in that county. Upon the issue presented, there is but one course for the State to pursue, and that is to follow the lead, South Carolina will carry them out, high and dry.

Meeting of the Convention.

We are gratified to perceive that the Richland Delegation in the Legislature reported yesterday that they had secured the use of the Baptist Church for the sittings of the State Convention. It is a large and convenient building, and the thanks of the Convention and the community are due to the pastor and elders of the Church for granting the privilege. The Delegates may be found in the future history of the Southern Confederacy, when the Baptist Church in Columbia, like Independence Hall in Philadelphia, shall be pointed out as the spot where the second Declaration of Independence was signed.

Quite a Mistake.

The Philadelphia Ledger has given our District credit for doing what was never done. The resolution they have pointed out was never before our people in any part of the District. The doctrine of delay never was taught in the election. The Mass Meeting nominees were all elected, and if the Ledger will watch the proceedings of the Convention, he will find all our delegates for immediate secession—separate and alone.

Railroad Prospects.

The recommendation of Gov. Ellis of N. C., says the Asheville News, that the Western Extension of the North Carolina Railroad, through the counties of Haywood, Jackson, Macon and Cherokee, to Duck Town, and a Branch Road from this point down the French Broad to Paint Rock, be immediately and vigorously prosecuted, has, we are gratified to learn, met with a warm and earnest response from the entire western delegation in the Legislature. Indeed, we learn that an amicable and satisfactory understanding has been reached by the members from West of the Ridge, and they will heartily unite in carrying out the recommendation of His Excellency.

South Carolina Conference.

The Conference met at the time appointed. The reception of reports being in order, several were offered, read and referred. Rev. Dr. Means, from Georgia Conference, presented the claims of the educational journal, published at Atlanta, Georgia, in an able and effective address.

The examination of the classes of the under-graduates was resumed, and many of them passed both as to proficiency in their professional studies, as well as in their ministerial and moral character. Some two or three were deficient in their studies and sent back on their last year, with the privilege of examination on their last year's course and the year to come.

The examination of character generally was then taken up, all in the Charlotte District passed. —[Guardian.]

The Governor Elect.

Hon. F. W. Pickens, of Edgefield District, has been elected Governor of the state of South Carolina, for the ensuing term of two years.

The Columbia Guardian, of the 15th instant, says: Mr. Pickens is a gentleman in every way competent to discharge the high and responsible duties of the office to which he has been chosen. Of mature age; of large experience in public affairs, both State and Federal; of admitted ability and unquestioned integrity—he left the present political condition of the country carries with him into office the confidence of the people of South Carolina.

He has been elected to a position, which will require the full exercise of, and put to the test the most varied accomplishments. As a true Carolinian, his duty is plain; but in the discharge of it, will require statesmanship, firmness, wisdom and experience; all of which we feel assured the Governor elect possesses in a high degree. We have all confidence that he will discharge his duties with credit to himself and to the State which has placed him in the highest position within her gift, in the most trying period of her history.

The Military Bill.

This Bill, reported by Gen. Edwards, prescribes provisions different to some extent from the Bill heretofore published by us. He (Gen. Edwards, as chairman of the said Military Committee) says that a few conferences had been held, and that they recommended to grant leave to the Senate to amend, by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting the contents of the schedule reported as follows:

The parts of the Bill as so amended as follows because of its great length:

Sect. 1. Whenever it shall appear that an armed force is about to be employed against this State or in opposition to its authority, the Governor is authorized to repel the same, and to accomplish that end shall call the Militia into service, organized upon the following plan:

From each Infantry Battalion he is required to call for one Volunteer company, and from each Brigade two Rifle companies, to be officered as follows: one captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, one third lieutenant, five sergeants, six corporals, and not less than sixty nor more than eighty-five privates; and such company shall have preference in the order of acceptance by the Governor, or over other companies, subsequently raised from such Battalions, or from the State at large. That every existing volunteer company, troop or squadron, battalion or regiment, composed of volunteer corps, which shall offer their services as a whole, may be so received and permitted to retain their officers: Provided, They render their services with the requisite number of officers, non-commissioned officers and privates. If any battalion or infantry shall neglect, refuse, or fail for want of numbers for thirty days after the issue, then the Governor is authorized to receive such volunteer companies as may present themselves properly officered from the nearest adjacent Battalion, and to order a draft from the Battalion refusing in the particulars stated above.

Sect. 3. The Governor is authorized to receive from each cavalry regiment one company of cavalry properly officered.

Sect. 4. That the Governor accept one Regiment of Artillery from the cities of Charleston, Columbia, Georgetown and Beaufort, armed and equipped according to law, with proper officers.

Sect. 5. That each company of volunteer officers may elect and appoint their own officers when formed and before rendering their services. But no election shall take place when in service, except for vacancies for ensign, corporal, and fourth Lieutenant of Artillery.

Provided, An election is ordered by the superior officer in command and held within twenty-four hours thereafter—vacancies to be filled by the next in grade thereto.

The chairman said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION.—When I say that I have no words to express the emotion which your confidence has given me, I say what precisely I mean. I can't express what I feel, therefore I shall say but very little now. There is no honor which I have felt to be more gratifying than to sign the act of this body as a member of the convention; but I regard it as the highest possible honor of my life to sign it as your presiding officer. We are engaged in a great subject—a most important matter. God knows what the result may be. It may turn out to the glory and honor of the South Carolina people to have us here.
